2. Advises to the Developer to prevent such a hack:

   - Website url or links should be protected and should not be accessible by /git.
   - Sensitive data should be cleared from any files or Github history.
   - Password or code of a github project should be maintained secret only among the project members.